The airshow is on again.
20-25 March 2007

Reply to this post if you are intending to go.

I will be taking the Sapphire down again.

Main URL for the airshow is:
<http://www.airshow.net.au/airshow2007>

If you have not expressed interest in the airshow, you can do so at the following URL:
<http://www.airshow.net.au/airshow2007/flying-in/interest.asp>

If you have expressed interest and have not received a reply (as in my case), they have probably lost your information and you should apply using the above link.

Stuck in Maryborough on Tuesday. Very low cloud and raining. So we won't be getting to Warranbool. Direct to Avalon tomorrow.

Interesting entry procedures. Can't wait :-(. Have to hold at max. speed, guess I won't be holding for too long.

Cheers,
Peter
