
SRFC Christmas Party 8th December

Posted by peterf - 2007/11/19 07:41

Hi everybody, I would like to have the Club Xmas party at our place this year, Saturday 8th December, also I would like to organise an afternoon at the Penrith white water rafting on the same day. That way we are only making one trip out to Penrith. They have 90 minute guided sessions at the rafting for $80.00, and then we can clean up and head over to our place for a BBQ and drinks. Everyone is welcome to have a shower at our place if they wish.

I need to know who is interested in white water rafting on the 8th, and who is coming to the Xmas BBQ that night. BYO meat, chair and drinks, sacks supplied.

Everyone welcome to come white water rafting, so if you have friends, family etc that's fine, I just need the numbers.
